Here at Faith Community Lutheran...we almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow the Scripture readings and the sermon with our Bibles open.

FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to “examine themselves” (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion.

19th Weekend after Pentecost
October 10 & 11, 2009

Welcome, Guests!

We are grateful that you have remembered the Sabbath to keep it holy.

“The Favor of the Lord”

“May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us; Establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands.” - Psalm 90:17

I just love those beautiful words, “May the favor of the Lord our God rest upon us.” The word “favor” can mean friendly or kind regard, goodwill, approval, liking, favoritism, kind or generous. However, I think the message that the psalmist is conveying when he talks about the “favor” of our Lord is grace. May the blessing of grace from our Lord and Savior rest upon us. What comfort we have in knowing that the favor of the Lord our God, His mercy and grace, is upon us. His love for us is eternal through the sacrifice of Jesus who died so that we might live forever in God’s favor.

The psalmist continues to express his desire to please God. Nothing is insignificant to God. Whatever we do in our daily lives for God’s glory, we can be assured that it is pleasing to God. If we commit our work to the Lord, it is of great value. What mighty works God can do through each of us when the work of our hands, our minds, our hearts are guided by God. Mighty does not necessarily mean big. Our small gestures directed by God’s love often have a mighty impact on somebody else. God sees it all and whatever we do in His name is significant.

In Hebrews 4:13, we are reminded that “Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight.” God knows if our thoughts, words and actions are sincere and for His Glory, not for our own personal recognition. This is affirmed in the Gospel lesson in Mark 10:21 when Jesus looked at the young man and loved him by instructing him to go sell everything and follow Him. It is this great love that instructs us to put God first in our lives and commit all that we do for His Glory so that we can fully embrace the joy and peace that comes from living our lives covered by God’s grace.

Father God, we thank You with sincere hearts for your perpetual love, grace and mercy that we have through Your Son. It is because of Your amazing love for us that we love You and Your favor rests upon us. Guide us in our daily walk with You so that all that we do, even the most insignificant action is valuable because we do it for Your glory. In Jesus’ name, we are forever yours. Amen.

For His Glory - Gloria Borchert

Kids Against Hunger.

Feeding hungry around the world!

Thank you to all the volunteers who helped with the Kids Against Hunger packaging event last Saturday, October 3rd! There were more than 56 volunteers, 20 of whom were FCLC volunteers (Pete & Sandy Seale, The Inskeep Family (4); Mary & Adam Konicek; Nadine Heidt; Keith & Shirley Noreen; Heather Williams; Pat Carson; Sally Meier; Shirley Gohmeir; Ed Broestl; Stephani, Shannon, & Sharon Vaughn; and Tami Musfeldt)! We packaged just over 12,000 meals in less than 2 hours! If we had not run out of rice, we could have made 4000 more!

With the help of FCLC Outreach, the Kiwanis Club of Longmont, Golden K Kiwanis, and Grace Lutheran in Boulder, the total contributions collected was $4005! This funded 16,020 meals! 2,204 of which were donated to the O.U.R. Center. The rest will be shipped to Haiti and to Christian World Outreach.

Again, thank you for making this project a success...we couldn't have done it without you!! Blessings! - Tami Musfeldt.
